TOLUCA'S HYDE PARK STAKES.

A delightful day, and a card of six races, including the contest for the Hyde Park Stakes, attracted a large crowd to Washington Park. The track had dried out and was in splendid condition. For the stake event—worth $2,600 to the winner, three-quarters of a mile, for 2-year-olds, five pounds below the scale—W. Overton, the crack colt of the west, carried an eight-pound penalty and King Barleycorn a three-pound penalty. The other starters were at weight for age, Mr. Johnson, in receipt of a five-pound allowance, having been scratched, as was also Holland and Cathedral. Jolly Roger, carrying 111 pounds, had on July 9 won at three-quarters of a mile, then beating the grand filly Spirituelle, in 1:14, but the bookmakers laughed at his chance. W. Overton opened at 4 to 5, but advanced in price to 6 to 5, while 1 to 2 a place was to be had. Pepper's pair were held at 4 to 1, at which figure also started Toluca, while Formero, a colt for which $10,000 has been refused, went to the post at 10 to 1. The activity in the betting ring was marked, the public taking kindly to the idea of stretching the distance for 2-year-olds. After two breakaways, at which no horse ran far enough to differ his chances, they were off with Toluca flying in the lead, indeed, from the bleaching boards a murmur arose, "Toluca has beaten the flag by two lengths." Hildreth's filly, never in trouble, won without being once headed. Kentucky Colonel and King Barleycorn ran in the second and third positions the first quarter, then the latter dropped back beaten, W. Overton, always fourth, taking his place. Jolly Roger had stuck closely to W. Overton, and when the favorite moved up turning into the stretch, Donohue's colt was there too, and the pair soon outraced the star of Pepper's string. Formero, last up the back stretch, had never been in the hunt, so W. Overton and Jolly Roger had the race for place to themselves, the latter winning in a hard drive.

With Croesus scratched the form players "laid out" Pinar del Rio as a cinch in the first race, Frank Latterman alone betting $800. Johnny Williams took the lead, but on the back stretch shot his bolt, Sidonian going to the front, Pinar del Rio second, Yuba Dam third. So to the homestretch, where Clawson on the favorite's ribs beat a tattoo to no purpose; and Sidonian looked certain to win when at the last eighth Conley got Yuba Dam up on the rail and won the race handily, Sidonian having to hurry along to beat Winslow for the place. Mr. Barrett's horse was last by lengths three-quarters of a mile from home, but ran fast the balance of the way.

Supposed to be a match between St. Callatine and Mary Black the second race furnished a surprise as Sam Hildreth's stake filly was never better than third, although heavily backed at 1 to 2. There were six breakaways caused by Cyclone II and Lady Ellerslie, and this state of affairs dismayed the backers of Mary Black, whose sole fear had been that she would not go the distance. Lady Ellerslie, off in front to a good start, was quickly outrun by Mary Black, the Wishard filly getting three lengths of daylight to the good in the first three-eighths. As St. Callatine and Lady Ellerslie closed to within one open length on the far turn the cry was heard "They will get her today," but Clawson work as he might, could get no nearer the flying wonder. Barrett, however, on Licalzi's pride, worked gradually to the leader and a furlong from the wire seemed to have her beaten but whereas Barrett was humping for all he was worth, the diminutive J. Reiff on Mary Black sat still and his mount won the race on her courage. A great cheer ascended when Mary Black's number went up.

Dr. Sheppard one day last spring at Roby beat Candleblack and knocked down the track record. So his performance yesterday fitted the form players. Dr. Sheppard led nearly all the way with Candleblack second and Al Fresco third, and so they finished.

The beauty of playing form was well illustrated in the fifth race when Jinks, a 10 to 1 shot, galloped to the favorite, Sevens, on the upper turn, "ran her eye out" and won as she pleased with her jockey looking around. Jinks on Derby Day beat Onomastus, who in turn beat Kentucky Colonel. Although the younger Schorr had given out that Cathedral would not run one, two, three, the lowering of the colt's price from 4 to 2 to 1 would indicate that Brewer Schorr had "backed up the brewery and unloaded," as a way to express it. Cathedral was third into the straight, but there cried "Take it," and at once Sevens acquiesced, the finish for place being a hot one, Survivor succeeding in beating Holland.

Libertine led to the last eighth, in the last race, where Charley Christy, always second, picked him up and made him stop, winning with Burns sitting still. Joe Clark was third, after trailing up the back stretch.

Twenty-one bookmakers drew in, I. Duckworth and Mr. Martin quitting the game. The "cut in" was for two days, leaving Saturday, the final day, for a grand "cut in" on account of the Wheeler Handicap.

Since Riley Grannan and Charley Quinn left for New York city, the surface of the betting ring has been placidity itself, as against the days when these big fish chased the little ones into the shoals, and there caught and devoured them.

Edward Corrigan's brothers, Patrick and Bernard, arrived in town, and visited the Hawthorne track.

It is understood that neither George Rose nor Barney Schreiber will be interested in the Hawthorne venture so long as there is opposition at Harlem. These men, however, still hold the lease of the Hawthorne track.

J. A. Vetter is the owner of Jolly Roger.

That Gen. W. H. Jackson intends to keep up the quality of his stock, witness the recent purchase of the following brood mares by his order through the agency of W. I. Cherry: Florence E, by Reform—Emily Fuller; Sunshine, by Reform—Madge; Treasure Trove, by Hindoo—Roselle. Price paid T. W. Coulter for the trio, $3,500. Of the same owner he had previously bought California. Suisun, by Strathmore—Beatrice, was also added to the harem at Belle Meade, she being bought of Eugene Leigh.

"Here's a good luck story," laughed Eugene Leigh. "One of my men sent to ascertain the odds against my (Pepper's) pair in the Hyde Park Stakes, returned, saying, 'It's 5 to 1 against the stable straight and even money against Kentucky Colonel to show.' So I sent an order to Maxey Blumenthal to put on $500 each way, for it looked to me as if 'Kentucky Colonel to show' was 'money from home.' Pretty soon out came Maxey's commissioner, and said he, stammering and all out of breath, 'Say, Gene, there ain't no 5 to 1 straight nor there ain't no even money Colonel Clark's namesake for to show. It's only three's and a half to win and only one's to two's to peep. Therefore, I rushed him back and countermanded my order. Good luck! I should say so; but there's more of it. I had a commission from the 'guineas' (stable boys) that amounted to $212. They are always 'on' the minute they give me the money. So, instead of losing $1,000, I quit $212 winner. Come, let's all hit the red tap.'"

The six and a quarter distance (from chute) has been dubbed by Secretary Howard "The Woodlawn Course." The Chicago author of "Lakeside Musings" once remarked: "Woodlawn is so named because there is not a stick of timber nor a blade of grass in the vicinity." According to this view "The Woodlawn Course" is an appropriate name. Chris Smith said: "It is named from yonder woodshed."

SHEEPSHEAD BAY STATISTICS.

At the June meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club, which closed July 4, eighty races were decided. Of the winners, Tod Sloan rode twenty-six, nearly four times as many as any other jockey. Those ranking next are Murphy, seven, and Doggett, Maher and Taral six each.

The get of Sir Dixon won more races than any other sire, his produce winning eight races. The winners by Sir Dixon are Ahom, Diminutive, Alpen, Jack Point, Sir Hubert, Maceo; all two-year-olds save the last, who is a four-year-old. Hanover's get came next with seven races to their credit. Those who gained brackets are Half Time, Miriam Claire, Sanders, Hamburg, Handball, Ben Holladay.

The most successful trainer was Wm. Lakeland, who sent eight winners to the post, T. Welsh was second with seven, and the late Hardy Campbell third, with six.

The list of winning jockeys is as follows: Sloan, 26; Murphy, 7; Doggett, Maher and Taral, 6 each; Hamilton, 5; Simms, 4; O'Connor and Spencer, 3 each; Songer, Williams and Chandler, 2 each; McCafferty, Dean, Clayton, Collins, Bracken, Callahan, English and Finnegan, 1 each.

The following is a list of the sires and the number of races won by the produce of each: Sir Dixon, 8; Hanover, 7; Magnetizer, 4; Amphion and Exile, 3 each; Goldfinch, Himyar, Kingston, Candlemas, Ben Strome, His Highness, Falsetto, Meddler, Hindoo, Kilwarlin, Ayrshire, Leonatus, Deceiver, Potomac and Tea Tray, 2 each; Onondaga, Islington, Ludwig, Kinglike, Tremont, Uncas, Wagner, George Kinney, Eothen, Cheviot, Marden, Belvidere, Enthusiast, Knight of Ellerslie, Logic, Gallantry, Whistle Jacket, Calvados, Tenny, Harry O'Fallon, Fonso, Strathmore, Dutch Roller and Duke of Magenta, 1 each.—Spirit of the Times.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Arthur Duffy, the well-known turfman, who was ruled off at Latonia on the statements of Jockey Aker that he tried to persuade him to ride with an electric saddle, will apply for reinstatement at the next meeting of the Turf Congress. Duffy has recovered from the illness which prevented him from appearing before the Latonia judges in his own behalf, and he has strong evidence to prove that he was guiltless of any wrongdoing or attempts to get Aker to use an electric saddle. Duffy is entitled to a hearing, and his story does not put Aker in a very enviable light.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Judge L. P. Tarlton was much impressed by what he saw at Washington Park recently, and interviewed in Cincinnati, said: "The game at Washington Park is simply magnificent. Of course there is the usual hue and cry about crooked races, but in the main the sport is very clean and inviting. The betting ring is alive with money. I was standing near George Rose's book one day last week and noticed a tremendous line facing the cashier. I asked Rose if he lost heavily on the race, and he said: 'No, I won $300, but I handled $7,000 on the race.' Ed Austin, Marcus Cartwright and Riley Grannan all handle big money on each race, and the fur flies when the heavy bettors get together."

MR. CORRIGAN'S STATEMENT.

The following from Mr. Edward Corrigan so clearly sets forth his position that comment is unnecessary.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 21, 1898.

Editor DAILY RACING FORM:

I find in almost every issue of the Chicago papers some reference to a race track war that I am accused of precipitating and, in justice to myself, I wish to make the following statement:

I have no desire or intention of bringing on a war of any sort whatever. My home is in Chicago, where I have lived ten years, and where I expect to reside for the rest of my natural life. I am a part owner in a valuable racetrack property here—the Hawthorne track—on which we pay taxes to the amount of $4,000 annually. This track has for several seasons been idle, and no attempt to run it has been made by us, though other tracks in this immediate vicinity have been allowed to run unmolested by the authorities.

Early in the spring we announced our intention of giving a race meeting at Hawthorne immediately following the one now drawing to a close at Washington Park, and this intention on our part was given the widest publicity.

On my return from California we again mentioned our intention and this was announced prior to the announcement of a second meeting at Harlem.

Harlem has already raced twenty-six days, Washington Park twenty-five, and now because we wish to give a race meeting on dates already claimed by us early in the year I am accused of instigating a race track war. Mr. Condon claims that he offered to divide dates, and perhaps he did, that is, he wished to take all of the inside of the cocoanut and give me the husks. I naturally declined to deal with him.

That is the situation in a nutshell so far as I am concerned, and I leave the general public to decide as to who is right in the matter.

In regard to the statement attributed to me in a morning paper, to the effect that I had secured the promise of five votes in the Cicero Town Board, I wish to deny the same in toto, as I have never met with but one of the members, and that was on the street and by accident, when he assured me, of his own accord, that he was in hopes to see racing resumed at Hawthorne, as it would give employment to a large number of persons who needed it.

E. CORRIGAN.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF HER?

There has for many years been seen at the various racetracks around Chicago a woman of uncertain age whose history and antecedents are quite unknown even to such acquaintances as she has chanced to make. Day in, day out, at the extremity of the grand stand which affords the better view of the course, there, seated in a surrey or a queen buggy, drawn by a single horse or a pair of horses as the case may be, is this silent female. There is something striking in her personality. Whether tall or short one cannot say, for she is of the species of animal never seen upon the ground, yet she reclines with a quiet sort of dignity which tells of birth and breeding. Her face is immobile, the features finely cut, the skin—whether by art or nature—perfect. Aquiline of nose, piercing of eye, sneering of lip, such is the woman that plays the races.

Rumor saith that she wagers large amounts of money. If this be so only her commissioner can say. There have been times when one of the official pool boys has brought into the betting ring several hundred dollar notes. No man would send his money by such agents, as the price laid would be shorter than the ruling one, because the mandate of the track manager is to the effect that the official pool boys must play where there is the largest percentage. Whose money this is has been the problem for years, and the Sphinx-like woman is said to be the investor. Such bets have won; such bets have lost. Still, when the horses flit by the post in the last race of the day, the carriage is away from the racetrack long before bets are paid, and no sign from its occupant. Shrewd guesses are made as to her identity, but nobody knows anything about her.

Dressed in black silk, without such ornaments as are worn by even the most unostentatious of women, unveiled, of mien ladylike; of manner perfect; she comes and goes, her sorrows, as her joys her own.

An ably written treatise on "Horse Racing, or the Art of Making Money at the Race Track," will be mailed free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Witte & Co., 729 Consolidated Exchange Building, Chicago. It is illustrated with fifteen art half-tones of Ed Eddy's celebrated racing studies. It is the most compact bit of horse lore we have ever seen, and gives in a nutshell the gist of a life's experience among the thoroughbreds. Every race-goer will find it highly instructive and very enjoyable reading.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Leonatus—Princess Lino.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third driving even harder. Yuba Dam ran an improved race. It was a bad lot, though, and this accounts for it. Sidonian galloped under a pull nearly all the way. He looked a sure winner on the stretch turn, but weakened badly when pinched. He bore in on Yuba Dam, too, through the stretch. Winslow was sharply cut off on the first turn and dropped far out of it down the back stretch, but came with a sensational rush through the stretch and would have been second in another stride. Johnny Williams showed speed, but it was just a dash. Pinar del Rio ran disappointingly. She is of little or no account, though, and was a false favorite.
Scratched—Croesus, 102.
Overweights—Pinar del Rio, 24 pounds; Yuba Dam, 3.

7283 SECOND RACE—The Woodlawn Course. 6 1-4 Furlongs. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. $400 added; net value to winner $360; $15 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Islington—ougress.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased at the end after an early drive. Mary Black ran a corking good race, but it was a scratch that she won. Lady Ellerslie should have beaten her. Mary Black stumbled below the sixteenth pole and lost considerable ground by it. Barrett, seeing this, thought he had the race won and took matters entirely too easy on Lady Ellerslie. The finish was a very pretty one and brought forth loud applause. Little Reiff is popular and the way he handled Mary Black after she stumbled caught the crowd. St. Callatine's speed seemed to have dulled since her last race. She could never get within hailing distance of Mary Black and hardly ran her race. Cyclone II., far outclassed, ran where he belonged.

7284 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Hyde Park Stakes. $2000 added; net value to winner $2000. $60 entrance; $450 to second; $150 to third.

Winner—Ch. f. by Nomad—Sweet.
Post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won hand ridden and cut to the last ounce; second driving and coming strong. The others were doing their best. Toluca's win was extremely lucky. She was away with a flying start and needed it to win. As the race was run, Jolly Roger was the best at the weights. He was all tangled up at the start and never really had clear sailing until the stretch was reached. When straightened away he finished with a rush and was catching Toluca at every jump. He is certainly a good colt. W. Overton could hardly give the weight away. He was off none too well, though, and was obliged to take the long route. He is game and resolute. Formero was running strong at the finish. Kentucky Colonel had a lot of speed and seemed to have a winning chance on the far turn. He is seemingly not game, though, and swerved from the center of the track clear to the rail in the stretch. King Barleycorn retired early. He runs best in mud.
Scratched—Holland, 113; Mr. Johnson, 108; Cathedral, 116.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Buchanan—Voline.
Off at first break to a good start. Won whipped out. It was a fierce drive for the place. Dr. Sheppard was hustled all the way. He needs that kind of handling, too. The colt wanted to loaf some on the stretch turn but Martin went after him with the whip and he drew away from Candleblack as though the latter was tied. Dr. Sheppard is good now and will take a lot of beating hereafter. Candleblack ran a good race. He is a shifty colt but about a mile is probably his best race. He was tiring badly at the finish. Al Fresco skinned the rails in the stretch and was catching Candleblack at every stride. Three Bars was beaten off and eased up.
Scratched—David Tenny, 115; Fervor, 112.

Winner—B. f. by Albert—Hoo Doo.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second and third driving to the limit. Jinks ran a really good race. Barrett had her well in hand all of the way. This seems to be a shifty sort of a filly and can beat better ones. Survivor finished strong. He had some bad luck in the race, but met with nowhere near the amount of interference that Holland did. The latter was off last and bumped and jostled at every turn. This colt wants a distance of ground. He was running great guns at the finish. Sevens seems to have gone back. She was well ridden and had no excuses at all. Cathedral, well up the first part of it, ran as if short and stopped badly.
Scratched—Lucille Bramble, 103; Rosa L, 103; Tulane, 106.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Woodlands—Julia W.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving mildly; second under full sail; third eased at the end. Libertine showed his dislike for a route. Had the race been a mile he would have walked home. When straightened away he was apparently galloping, and Shields was looking around at Burns. At the sixteenth pole Libertine collapsed, Christy getting to and passing him as though he were anchored. Charley Christy was a good horse today. He was pinched off on the first turn by Libertine and was laboring to keep up on the far turn. Burns rode a good race on the gelding, too. Joe Clark ran his race. ValeSCO was swerving all over the stretch.
Scratched—Goose Liver, 105.

Winner—Ch. m. 5, by Salvatore—Bessie June.
Start good. Won easily. Juno, best handled and lucky throughout, finished gamely at the end. Ruby Lips is much improved and should win at an early date. She took the long route after getting away on the inside. Marito, on the inside, was somewhat bothered for a while, but came so fast in the stretch that her jockey nearly fell off. Decide likes a shorter route, but had all his speed with him to-day. Tinkler ran well for him. So did Prince Auckland, but both are very common. Ida J. D. was practically left and is of no earthly good anyway.
Scratched—Taranto, 117; Swamp Angel, 116; Sculptor, 103.

7295 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. $300 added. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 1:21, 24, 36, 1:02.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hanover—The Niece.
Start fair. Won easily. Matanza was the best. She is quite a filly and a game stayer. Ninety Cents ran surprisingly well and showed phenomenal pace the first half. St. Clair is a grand looker and ran well with the top weight. Mark Miles is small and lightly put up and is overweighted in consequence. Is very fast but requires light burdens. Subject is acrobatic. Wales stopped badly after running a fast first quarter. The others were out of the race from the start.
Scratched—Tut Tut, 107.

7296 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Cavalier—Lady Alice.
Start good. Won easily. Free Lance is at his best. It was an easy race for him but he had all the advantages of good handling in his favor. Banquo II. requires a strong, hustling ride, which he failed to get today. He is good. Merlin ran his race.
Scratched—Gun Metal, 91.

Time, 1:21, 24, 36, 1:02.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ben Strome—Favor Ban.
Start good. Won easily. Anagram, lucky and well handled, is a good filly at that, and looks it. Helen Thomas ran well and is a good looker, too. La Cheviot, with the worst of the weight and handicapped with a bad jockey, was best. She closed a big gap, taking the long route from a bad beginning. Tender ran her race. Avoce showed surprising form. Tendresse is faint-hearted, but will improve. Lady Exile ran well. Rock Dove had no chance with such a jockey. Loiter is a cheap one. Inennamara had no chance with the ride or start. Lepida is out of form. Onndaga's Pride wants mud. Is a very bad actor and was overweighted.
Scratched—Caoutchouc, 114; Sky Scraper, 99.
Overweights—La Cheviot, 2 pounds.

7298 FIFTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward.

Time, 24, 48, 1:13, 1:39, 1:46, 1:53.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Sir Modred—Sweetbriar.
Start fair. Won easily. Briar Sweet is easily the best filly of the year or of recent years. Her race was extraordinary from every point of view. After fifty minutes' delay at the post she got away none too well and was poorly handled. Dr. Catlett, with the best of the weights, was off in front after being well saved at the post. He got a poor ride, but is very good and will do soon. Our Johnny, aided by his light weight and the tiresome delay at the post, ran finely. PEEP O'DAY was killed off by Briar Sweet and was ridden with bad judgment, though he came again in the last sixteenth after appearing to be beaten and should have been third. Semper Ego is stale and acts worse than ever at the post.
Scratched—Ogden, 121.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Sheen—Homeopathy.
Start fair. Won easily. Glonoine, off none too well, galloped throughout. He outclassed his field badly and is a good colt in fair company. Taranto would have had a chance with a more capable jockey. He is good. He came again after appearing to be beaten. Leo Lake showed a fine burst of speed and will do to watch from now on. Ella Daly is of little account. Tanis ran well after getting away badly. Governor Budd is at his best. Watch for him over hurdles. Torstenson is but half fit. He ran very well for a half.
Scratched—Jefferson, 102; Hardy C., 99; Ruby Lips, 93.
